

How to Challenge and How to Obtain Your FBI Identity History Summary

What is an FBI Identity History Summary?

An FBI Identity History Summary, often referred to as a “rap sheet,” is a listing of certain information taken from fingerprint submissions kept by the FBI. The information is related to arrests, and in some instances, the information is related to federal employment, naturalization, or military service. If the fingerprint submissions are related to an arrest, the Identity History Summary includes the name of the agency that submitted the fingerprints to the FBI, the date of the arrest, the arrest charge, and the disposition of the arrest, if known. All arrest information included in an Identity History Summary is obtained from fingerprint submissions, disposition reports, and other information submitted by authorized criminal justice agencies.

How do I challenge my FBI Identity History Summary?

If you believe your Identity History Summary contains inaccurate or incomplete information, you may request a change or correction by contacting the agency or agencies that originally submitted the information to the FBI. However, most states require that changes to Identity History Summary information be processed through their respective state centralized agency (State Identification Bureau). You may contact the respective State Identification Bureau for assistance, and, if applicable, request they provide the FBI with updates to your Identity History Summary. For the State Identification Bureau listing, refer to: www.fbi.gov/checks.

You may also send an electronic or written challenge request to the FBI’s CJIS Division. Your written request should clearly identify the information that you feel is inaccurate or incomplete and should include copies of any available proof or supporting documentation that validates your claim. For example, if your disposition information is incorrect or missing, you may submit documentation obtained from the court having control over the arrest or the office prosecuting the offense. The FBI will contact the appropriate agencies in an attempt to verify or correct challenged entries for you. Upon receipt of an official communication from the agency with control over the data, the FBI will make appropriate changes and notify you of the outcome. Updating your FBI Identity History Summary can include having final disposition data entered, cases expunged, pardons entered, a conviction level changed, or rights restored. Once you have been notified of the outcome of your challenge, you may choose to obtain a copy of your Identity History Summary. Please see “How do I obtain a copy of my FBI Identity History Summary for personal review” in this brochure.

How do I obtain a copy of my FBI Identity History Summary for personal review?

If you would like a copy of your Identity History Summary, you may submit a request to the FBI. The FBI offers three options for requesting your summary or proof that a summary does not exist.

Option 1: Electronically submit your request:

- 1) Go to <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>.
- 2) Follow the steps under the “Obtaining Your Identity History Summary” section.

Option 2: Submit your request directly to the FBI:

FBI CJIS Division - Summary Request
1000 Custer Hollow Road
Clarksburg, WV 26306

You are required to provide the following:

- 1) A completed Applicant Information Form.
- 2) Payment for the $18 processing fee, either by certified check or money order made payable to the Treasury of the United States, or by a credit card. For credit card payment form and information, refer to: www.fbi.gov/checks.
- 3) A current fingerprint card bearing your name and date of birth. You must include rolled impressions of all 10 fingerprints and impressions of all 10 fingerprints taken at the same time (these are sometimes referred to as plain or flat impressions). If possible, have your fingerprints taken by a fingerprinting technician. Previously processed cards or copies will not be accepted.

Option 3: Submit through an FBI-approved Channeler, which is a private business that has contracted with the FBI to submit your request on your behalf. The Channeler will then receive the electronic summary check results for dissemination to the individual. For a listing of FBI-approved Channelers, refer to: www.fbi.gov/checks.

Due to provisions within the Privacy Act of 1974, the FBI cannot provide Identity History Summary information via the telephone or facsimile.

What will I receive?

If we do not find an Identity History Summary on file, you will receive a response indicating that you have no prior arrest data on file at the FBI. If you do have an Identity History Summary on file, you will receive your Identity History Summary or "rap sheet."

If you submitted a request electronically directly to the FBI, you will receive a response electronically and an option for a response by First-Class Mail via the U.S. Postal Service.

If you submitted a request through the mail directly to the FBI, you will receive a response by First-Class Mail via the U.S. Postal Service.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the processing time?

The FBI processes requests as quickly as possible; however, please allow several weeks for processing. The processing time will be less if your request is submitted electronically. Requests submitted to the FBI are processed in the date order they are received. You may obtain an estimate of the current processing time on our website; refer to www.fbi.gov/checks.

Can the FBI send the results to someone (or an agency) other than myself?

Under the U.S. Department of Justice Order 556-73, the results will be returned to the requestor or his/her designated representative. A signed release to return the results to the representative must accompany such a request.

Where can I get my fingerprints taken?

Local, county, or state law enforcement agencies may take your fingerprints for a fee. Also, some private companies offer this service. Check the business listings in your telephone book or search online. If using the Channeler option, please contact the FBI-approved Channeler for additional information.

Why was I told there was a problem with my Identity History Summary when I received a letter indicating that a search of the fingerprints I provided revealed no prior arrest data at the FBI?

There are several instances in which this might occur, such as:

- 1) Removal of arrest information may have been authorized since you were advised of the summary problem.
- 2) A previous search was conducted with a name and physical description only, and the descriptive data you provided matched or was very similar to that contained in another individual's summary. Positive identifications are made by fingerprint comparisons.
- 3) The arresting agency may not have supplied the information to the FBI. You will need to contact the state repository of the state in which the arrest occurred.
